

Almighty God Beyond the Veil

This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil. Heb. 6:19

F minor/A \flat - 4 - MI

1. In an - cient times the cho - sen race Pre - pared Je - ho - vah's dwell - ing
2. "Be - hold, your King!" That shame - ful cry, Was ech - oed back as "Cru - ci -
3. Now we, Je - ho - vah's ran - somed race, May en - ter His Most Ho - ly place. The peo - ple feared the voice of Him Who dwelt be - tween the fy!" The blood was shed that could a - tone, The Lamb that was Je - Place. By faith our prayers as - cend to Him Who reigns a - mong the cher - u - bim, the cher - u - bim. But once a year their priest would hail Al - ho - vah's own, Je - ho - vah's own. That dark - est hour, His last ex - hale, Ful - ser - a - phim, the ser - a - phim. We bold - ly bow, and thus pre - vail, With

Coda
might - y God be - yond the veil.
filled God's plan and tore the veil.
God who dwells be - yond the veil. Al - might - y God be - yond the veil.