

“I’m just one person.
What difference can I really make?”

The next time you’re tempted to think like that, remember Jonathan, son of King Saul, in 1 Samuel 14.

- ◆ Jonathan was a young man of _____
_____.
- ◆ Jonathan actively _____ for an _____.
- ◆ Jonathan was an _____ who responded to _____.
- ◆ Jonathan didn’t _____ upon God.
- ◆ Jonathan was concerned with harmonizing his _____ with God’s _____.
- ◆ Jonathan was willing to do his own _____.
- ◆ Jonathan, by his actions, _____ and _____ others.

The key: “For _____ can hinder the LORD from saving by _____ or by _____.” (1 Sam 14:6)

“And this is the victory that has overcome the _____ — our _____.” (1 John 5:1-5)
