

Now, What Do You See?

Vision (noun):

1. The act or power of sensing with the _____; sight.
2. The act or power of anticipating that which _____ or _____ come to be.
3. A vivid conception of something _____.

Without Vision:

- We _____ aimlessly (Prov 1:2-4, 7)
- We're _____ (Prov 6:6-11)
- We're _____ and careless (Prov 14:15-16)
- We _____ (John 11:9-10)
- We _____ (Luke 14:28-30)
- We fail to realize our full _____ (Matt 25:18, 26; 2 Pet 1:4-11)

Now, What Do You See? The Corrective Colossians Lenses

- _____ and _____ to you from God our Father (1:2)
- The _____ laid up for you in _____ (1:5a)
- The ever-increasing fruit of the _____ which has come to you (1:5b-6)
- Knowledge of his will in all _____ wisdom and understanding (1:9)
- How to _____ in a way that fully pleases the _____ (1:10)
- Strength for all _____ and _____ with _____ (1:11)
- Reconciled _____ in the kingdom of the beloved Son (1:13-23)
- The greatness of the riches of the hope of _____ (1:25-29)