

The View From MOUNT ZION

We've devoted a little bit of this Summer to the view from a few of the mountains in the Bible. Our series draws to a close with Mount Zion.

The Hope of Zion: "God Will _____"

- God calls Abraham to offer his _____ on one of the mountains of Moriah (Gen 22:1-14)
- "The stronghold of Zion," the Jebusite city of _____, is built on this mountain range, captured by David (2 Sam 5:7), and made his capital
- David's son Solomon builds the _____ on Mount Moriah (2 Chron 3:1)
- In the heart of the Jewish people, "Zion" comes to be known as:
 - God's _____ hill (Psa 2:6), where he sat _____ (9:11)
 - The source of _____ for salvation (14:7)
 - The place where God had made himself _____ as a fortress (48:1-3)
 - The perfection of _____, from which God shone like the sun (50:1-2)
 - A symbol of those who _____ in the LORD (125:1-2)
 - A promise of hope in Israel's darkest days (Isa 2:2-3) because:
 - A _____ was going to come to Zion (59:20)
 - The LORD would lay in Zion the _____ of a new foundation (28:16)
- And at just the right time, the "daughter of Zion" was told, "Behold, your _____ is coming to you" (Matt 21:1-9)

"Therefore Let _____..." (Hebrews 12)

- Don't _____ him who is speaking (12:25)
- _____ with endurance the race that is set before us (Heb 12:1-2, 18-21)
- Gratefully _____ and reverently _____ in the kingdom that cannot be _____ (12:28-29, 22-24)
