Whatever You're Feeling,
There's a Psalm for That

Lesson 9
June 4

Life is full of all sorts of emotions, but one of the beautiful things about the big book in the middle of our Bibles? Whatever you're feeling, there's a psalm for that.

If you're feeling _____...

Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being _____;
my flesh also dwells secure...

You make known to me the path of _____;
in your presence there is fullness of joy;
at your right hand are pleasures _____. (Psa 16:9, 11)

If you're feeling _____...

The LORD is near to the _____
and saves the crushed in spirit. (34:18)

- According to 1 Samuel 21:10-15, what was going on in David's life at this point? Even in such a tough time, how do you think he was able to say what he did in Psalm 34:8?

whom shall I fear? (27:1)

- What do you see in Psalm 27 that helped David (and can help us) deal with fear?

If you're feeling _____...

How _____, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

How _____ must I take counsel in my soul
and have sorrow in my heart all the day?

How long shall my enemy be exalted over me? (13:1-2)

- How might we struggle with uncertainty today? Even in a time of uncertainty, how did David pray in 13:5-6? What difference can that make when we're feeling uncertainty?

If you're feeling _____...

Turn to me and be _____ to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted. (25:16)

- Can a relationship with God really help us when we're feeling lonely? If so, how?

If you're feeling _____...

My heart is in _____ within me;
the terrors of death have fallen upon me. (55:4)

- As you scan Psalm 55, what had happened in David's life? Could Jesus (in whose name we pray today) relate to this sort of treatment from others? So what can we pray when we've been hurt by others?

If you're feeling _____...

O LORD, why do you cast my soul away?

Why do you hide your _____ from me? (88:14)
