

The glory of God has been on display all around us this past week, but Romans 15:7 describes a unique and ongoing opportunity: "Therefore _____ one another as Christ has welcomed you, _____ the glory of God." Welcome is where "one another" begins, and it's not without a solid foundation.

God is...

...therefore...

- 🎧 15:6 - the _____ of a _____ who did not please himself (15:3)
 ...let each of us _____ his neighbor _____ (15:1-2).
- 🎧 15:8 - full of _____
 ...Christ became a _____ (15:8).
- 🎧 15:5 - the God of _____
 ...welcome one another _____ Christ has welcomed you (15:7).
- 🎧 15:5 - the God of _____
 ...through the Scriptures we can have _____ (15:4).
- 🎧 15:9 - _____
 ...we might _____ God for his mercy (15:9).
- 🎧 15:13 - the God of _____
 ...we can be full of joy, peace, hope, and _____ (15:13-14).
- 🎧 15:33 - the God of _____
 ...we can live in _____ with one another (15:5-6).

Gospel _____ creates gospel _____ for the display of God's _____.
